

Peoples of the Great Plains

(as depicted in Lakota winter counts)

Tribe (alternate names)	Defining Characteristics	Pictograph(s)
Hidatsa (called Gros Ventres)	stripped or spotted hair
Absaroka (called Crow)	upright forelock with netted extension
Pawnee (called Ree)	scalplock hairstyle; flared moccasin tops
Arikara (called Ree)	ear of corn; lodge
Sicangu (called Brulé)	black mark on thigh
Omaha	cropped hair; painted cheeks
Assiniboin (called Hohe)	outline of vocal organs (upper lip, roof of mouth, tongue, lower lip, chin and neck)
Mandan (called Miwatani)	hair on crown of head spiked upwards
Ponca (called Ponka)	headdress of elk hair and a feather
Cheyenne	short vertical stripes, usually on the sleeve; cross
Euro-American	broad brimmed hat
Ute	body painted black
Nez Perce	pompadour; upright forelock with netted extension	